

STRANGE SELECTS SENATE COMMITTEE

MORRIS, MARSH AND HUSTING TO PROBE "IKE"

WILL BEGIN AFTER APRIL 10

SENATE WING OF JOINT COMMITTEE GOES IT ALONE

QUZ STRANGE AND POWELL

Go into Hatton Campaign and Injure Ike By Showing Comparative Cleanliness

MADISON, Wis., March 27.—Lieut. Gov. Strange today appointed Senators Marsh, Morris and Hustings as members of the special senatorial investigation committee to conduct the inquiry into Senator Stephenson's expenditures after the present joint committee reports on April 10. These three senators are members of the present joint investigation committee and all are anti-Stephenson men.

The joint committee today had W. W. Powell, a newspaper reporter, and Lieut. Gov. Strange, both supporters of W. H. Hatton in the primary election, on the stand and they gave the names of persons to whom they paid money to promote Hatton's candidacy.

Wanted Powell Back.
Mr. Powell, formerly political reporter for the Milwaukee Free Press, later editor of the La Crosse Chronicle, and now Madison correspondent of the Milwaukee Journal, said that he had been an admirer of W. H. Hatton ever since his connections with the railroad rate bill; that he had worked for him occasionally, but had never done any active work until April 27, when he entered Mr. Hatton's employ at a stipulated salary of $25 per week and expenses. He was to work throughout the whole state. All told he received and expended "in the neighborhood of $1,600." He did not remember the exact amount. His account had been filed.

Right Man All Right.
"Did you ever tell any one that Mr. Hatton was Senator La Follette's choice?" queried Assemblyman Bray. "No, I did not. I did tell any number of people that he ought to be Senator La Follette's choice."

"Were you ever asked to support any other candidate?"
"Mr. Cowling asked me to support Mr. Cook, which I refused to do. He did not know that I was working for Hatton."

"Were you ever asked to support any one else?"
"Yes, Mr. Stephenson asked me to go back to work on the Milwaukee Free Press, and I would like to see any one work on the Free Press and not support Mr. Stephenson. He did not offer any specific amount, but he put his arm around me in a way peculiar to himself, saying that I had never received enough pay from the Free Press. He told me that I did not want to work for Mr. Hatton."

Dollars Ike's Asset.
Senator Hustling asked Mr. Powell if Mr. Stephenson offered him an increase in salary sufficiently large that he would receive as much as any man in Milwaukee. He answered affirmatively.

"How much of an increase would that be?"
"One hundred dollars a month."

"Do you think that the money spent by Mr. Stephenson had anything to do with his election?"
"That was his sole asset."

"Would you have worked as you did for Mr. Hatton if you had not been paid?"
"No, I could not have afforded to."

"Why did you not accept Mr. Stephenson's offer?"
"Because I had convictions and would not sell them."

WILL DIE LIKE A QUEEN, SHE SAYS

AUBURN, N. Y., March 27.—"I will die like a queen going to the high court."

Mrs. Mary Farmer, who early Monday will die in the electric chair to pay the law's exaction for the murder of Sarah Brennan less than a year ago, made this statement to Attorney Wilcox today.

Realizing that there is no longer the slightest hope for a commutation of her sentence and that the death chair has already been tested and found in order, Mrs. Farmer is spending her few remaining hours in perfect composure and heroic resignation to her fate, while hundreds of letters, petitions and personal appeals to Gov. Hughes have failed to ameliorate. She may confess to save her husband.

SCHOONHOVEN HERE

Manager Schoonhoven of the Eau Claire team was in the city today and called on President Elliott of the M.-W. league. Mr. Schoonhoven left at noon for Eau Claire, where he will take up his duties as manager.

ALDERMEN AND MAYOR GET PAY

BUT IT DOES NOT START UNTIL FEBRUARY, 1910

JUSTICE SALARY CUT $100

Mayor Tells Councilmen that Justice Spent About 10 Hours a Month at His Duties

Mayor—$1,000.
City clerk—$2050.
City treasurer—$2700.
Comptroller—$1800.
Board of public works—$1000.
Police justice—$1000.
Tax commissioner—$1200.
City attorney—$1500 and $300 stenographer.
City engineer—$1500.
Health officer—$1100.
Weighmaster—$720.
Assessors—$500 a year.
Aldermen—$200 a year with $5 deducted for absence from regular meetings, $3 for special meetings and $1 for committee meetings.

The above is the list of the city officials and their salaries as fixed by the council last evening and goes into effect next February with aldermen and mayor. The police justice's salary was lowered from $1100 to $1000 on account of the small amount of work that the office calls for. There was considerable discussion in regard to lowering the salary of the justice but the mayor made matters clear in a brief address to the council. He said that he was in a position to notice the work that had been done and that he could honestly say that the present official did not put in over 10 hours a month on an average. He said that 10 years ago the salary for the office was $500 and that the fees during 1896-7 were more than 1906-7. Continuing the mayor told of how the present justice asked for a raise in salary on account of the increased powers that were given to that office a few years ago, but that since that time there has been less fines taken in from the office than before.

The raise in the salary of the department was made illegally according to the belief of the mayor. He then told of the records of the court which show that in the largest quarter in the last 10 years was $1599 and out of this sum over $1300 was paid by keepers, inmates and gamblers whose arrest was, merely a matter of form and that no work was required by the police department or the justice in taking care of the cases.

In closing the mayor said: "The mistake, for such I think it was, has cost the city in the neighborhood of $3000."

No Pay Till February
Owing to the ordinance the mayor and the council will not be able to draw any pay until next February and the charter reads that the salary of the city officials will be fixed at the February meeting.

The plan to raise the comptroller's salary $100 was contrary to the charter, so the salary was left at its regular figure.

Office hours for city officials were fixed as follows: From 9 a. m. to 12 m. and from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., except Saturdays during the months of June, July and August, when they shall be from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m.

Alderman Houska read a resolution to permit the plow company to build an addition to their factory on Vine street between Second and Third streets.

The meeting was then adjourned.

FUNERAL OF WILL GALVIN HERE TODAY

The funeral of William Galvin, former division freight agent on the Southern Minnesota division of the Milwaukee, who died in St. Paul was held here at noon today. The body arrived on the 12:08 Burlington and was at once taken to St. Joseph Cathedral where the funeral rites were conducted. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery with the following pall bearers: Joseph Golland, John C. Burns, John Cody, George B. Fredericks, Larry Scherhard and Dr. E. A. Gatterdam. Mr. Galvin was a member of the Helena lodge No. 193 of Elks and the Elks here took charge of the funeral arrangements and providing flowers.

Mr. Galvin formerly resided at 420 North Seventh street, while in the S. M. offices, but about 12 or 13 years ago went to St. Paul as traveling auditor for the Northern Pacific. He was nearly seventy years of age and will be well remembered by a large number of friends in this city.

TO MEET BEFORE DEATH

AUBURN, N. Y., March 27.—Warden Benham informed James and Mary Farmer, under sentence of death for the murder of Sarah Brennan that they can have a farewell meeting in the men's prison tomorrow morning.

Mrs. Farmer will wear a divided skirt to the death chair, this being necessary to permit a convenient arrangement of the electrods.

TROUBLESOME DAYS FOR UNCLE SAM

"YOU ARE SORRY, I UNDERSTAND"

THIS EXPRESSION THOUGHT TO EXPLAIN MYSTERY

LETTERS POINT TO SUICIDE

Indications Are That Vincennes Bride Killed Herself When She Thought Husband Faltered

VINCENNES, Ind., March 27.—Proofs that Mrs. Russell Culbertson committed suicide and was not killed by a jealous rival continue to accumulate. The following letter written by the unhappy bride of three months to her young husband just before she carried out her elaborate plan to cast suspicion on her former rival in love convinced the police today that they made no mistake in dropping the hunt for a murderer.

"Dear," the letter began, "don't ever become an unwilling slave to anyone. It must be free and unconditional surrender to satisfy the longing of my heart. I know you don't like the influence I had over you and now, dear, you are sorry. I think I understand."

Extracts from other letters of the dead woman show that she feared her husband still loved Mrs. Etta Longwell of Chicago, who yesterday proved her innocence of suspicions against her.

One says: "I awaited your letter with happy anticipations; and, oh, the stab it contained. Why did you hurt me so?"

"I can't think how you misunderstood my saying I was so sorry and envious of the one who could arouse the dormant in you; sorry, if you were disappointed; sorry, if both parties concerned, and very envious of the true one, because you could build happiness if you so desired. I, too, have fought against the dictates of my heart. Don't think I don't know your struggles also. There was a coldness through your letter that hurt me more than you ever will know."

INSISTS ON WEDDING TO YELLOW MAN

SEATTLE, Wash., March 27.—It is believed that Gungiro Aoki, who claims to be a nephew of Gen. Aoki, and Helen Gladys Emery, daughter of the Episcopal archdeacon of all-fornia, will get their license and be married either in this city or one of its suburbs. If any obstacle is thrown in the way by the authorities, the couple may decide to be married in Tacoma where the mayor has announced the wedding will not be opposed.

Miss Emery and her mother registered at the Hotel Savoy while Aoki is the guest of Japanese friends here.

NO RECONCILIATION

NEW YORK, March 27.—The report from Chicago that Margaret H. Hington, wife of Daniel Frohman, is coming to New York next week to become reconciled to Mr. Frohman, was denied tonight by friends.

MRS. BOYLE TRIES TO LEAP OFF TRAIN

WHITLA KIDNAPPER RUNS TO DOOR OF CHAIRCAR

IS CAUGHT BY THE SHERIFF

She Denies She Is the Daughter of a Chicago Man and Tells Lawyers "You're in Wrong"

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 27.—While the Bessemer and Lake Erie train bearing Mrs. James H. Boyle was bowling along at 30 miles an hour near Valencia this morning, Mrs. Boyle made a daring but unsuccessful attempt to escape from the officers in whose custody she was being taken to Mercer to answer for her part in the kidnapping of Billy Whitla.

While the rear door of the chair car in which she was traveling was being held open, Mrs. Boyle jumped from her seat and started for the platform. The brakeman, however, saw that the woman was trying to escape and quickly slammed the door. Mrs. Boyle stepped into the layatory and was in the act of opening the window, preparatory to jumping, when she was caught by Sheriff Addison Gumbert.

She was taken back to her chair and a more careful watch kept on her movements.

Mrs. James H. Boyle was moved to the Mercer country prison today.

Before leaving the woman denied emphatically the report that she is the daughter of Wm. F. McDermott, a Chicago fireman, as has been reported.

"You're in wrong there," she said to Detective Walter Perkins, when he put the question to her. "My name is not McDermott; never was McDermott and my father is not a fireman. Furthermore, I never lived in Chicago."

Wm. F. McDermott, accompanied by his son, is expected to arrive in Pittsburgh this morning. He probably will leave for Mercer this afternoon, where he will attempt to identify the woman as his daughter Anna.

Boyle, the alleged husband of the woman, was taken to the Mercer jail yesterday. It was given out today that Mrs. Boyle was not taken to Mercer with her husband yesterday because it was feared the two prisoners would cause too much excitement on the train and at the various stops.

Story of Her Life

MERCER, Pa., March 27.—Mrs. Helene Boyle in the county jail here today gave a correspondent the first authoritative interview concerning her connection with the kidnapping of Billy Whitla and her past life.

She denied every other interview of consequence attributed to her.

"In the first place, I am the wife of James H. Boyle, arrested together with me for the kidnapping," she said. "I am legally married to him. I love him and I mean to stand by him. I am not Anna McDermott and not Anna."

REPUBLICANS WANT DECREASED TAXES

PLATFORM SAYS HIGH TAX SCARES OFF INDUSTRIES

THIS MADE BIG FEATURE

Time Has Come, Says Platform, When La Crosse Must Get Busy and Get in the Game

At a meeting of republicans last night the following platform was adopted upon which Dr. F. C. Sulter of the north side will make his run for mayor:

"The republican candidates on the municipal ticket at the election of 1908 make this declaration of the issues upon which they appeal for the suffrages of the voters of La Crosse, irrespective of party affiliations as one that promises the greatest good to the greatest number, within recognized legal, social and personal rights."

"The prosperity and happiness of the people who make up our present population are paramount and can be best secured by public co-operation with private enterprise, and the encouragement by our public officials of home industries. The time has come when the prosperity of the city demands an immediate increase of industries. We must foster the ones we have and invite others. A constantly increasing taxation injures the business we have, and repels new industries."

"We favor a determined effort to at once reduce taxation, thereby promoting present and future industries. The aldermen as directors of the city should unite with the progressive association and with the board of trade and with other civic organizations for the industrial improvement of the city, as well as its adornment."

"We pledge ourselves to the cause of orderly government, to the liberal support of our public schools and to the extension of the course of manual training therein."

"We declare for better facilities for the health department, it being recognized that the health officer is badly hampered in his struggle against contagious diseases for want of the necessary supplies and lack of funds."

"We favor the free conference of private citizens and public officers in a constant endeavor to pursue a policy, in the conduct of municipal affairs that shall seem most likely to insure a bigger, busier and better La Crosse."

NO DATE FOR A MINERS' CONFERENCE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 27.—President Tom L. Lewis of the miners' union said this morning that no date has as yet been set for a meeting of any member of the union and the anthracite operators to consider the demands of the miners as formed at the Scranton convention. President Lewis said the next move would be for a conference, but that as yet none had been arranged.

SOUL-MATE SAYS HE'S NO LUNATIC

AFFINITY SAYS SO IN SUIT FOR A DIVORCE

SEQUEL TO THE EARLE FARCE

Man Who Left His Wife for a "Twin Soul" Now Wrangling With Attorneys Over a Divorce

Before Marriage.

Ferdinand Pinney Earle, "I have found my twin soul. Julia Kuttner is my affinity for life. I love Julia with an undying affection. Nothing can ever separate us."

Julia Kuttner: "We understand each other. He is the right man for me; I am the right woman for him. I decided I could not live happy without Ferdinand. His wife agrees with me. She has given him to me. The revelation of our love came to us with sweeping certainty. It was a sacred moment."

One Year Later.

From Mrs. Earle's divorce complaint:
"That at the time of said marriage, defendant was a lunatic and incapable of contracting marriage; that defendant has remained and is still a lunatic."

What Earle says now:
"I am not a lunatic. It's false."

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., March 27.—Ferdinand Pinney Earle, who something more than a year ago found a "soul mate" in Miss Julia Kuttner and interested the entire country and shocked a part of it by casting off his wife and marrying her, is today in conference with his lawyers to decide whether to resist his "soul mate's" action for divorce.

The prospect is that Earle will fight the action, for the woman who only a year ago declared that she could not live happy without him, now charges that he is a lunatic and that at the time of his marriage to her he was still legally bound to his former wife.

Earle no longer contends for the "soul mate," "affinity" and "twin being" idea. He is willing to admit that he "got in bad" but that he is a lunatic or ever was one—never.

Earle says that Cupid may have led his heart astray but that his reason is still enthroned.

Mrs. Earle and her baby, a few months old, are believed to be in New York with her mother. Earle is still at his "castle" at Monroe, N. Y., surrounded by his dogs, which were employed to keep off curious sightseers.

The Earles were married in Venice, Italy, March 17, 1908, the date not being disclosed until the divorce suit was filed. The alarm clock of discord soon sounded on their dream of matrimonial bliss. Last August Earle was thrown into jail on his wife's charge that he had brutally beaten her three weeks after she had borne him a child. Earle used his soul mate hypnotism again and the wife dropped the charges and he was released.

MEETINGS PLANNED BY THE DEMOCRATS

MORRIS NAGS THE ASSEMBLY REACTIONARIES

THEY SEEK AN EXCUSE NOW

Fact That They Voted for Stephenson During the Probe Comes Back to Plague Members

MADISON, Wis., March 27.—"The best thing that the La Follette faction of the republican party has done is to unload Isaac Stephenson on the stalwarts."

Assemblyman Bray was sorely vexed when he made this assertion the dramatic climax of the most spirited speech he has made during the sessions of the senatorial investigating committee. But he meant it, and though the 100 or more spectators were convulsed with laughter at the irony of fate as recognized by Mr. Bray, no smile played about the lips of the member from Winnebago county.

It was during the course of an argument over the admission of testimony, and the charge which has been so often made by the senate members that the assemblymen had been obstructing the investigation had been repeated.

Tom Worries Them.

Times without number, Senator Morris had asked of the assembly members of the committee the embarrassing question:

"How can you explain the fact that you as members of the investigation committee..."

REPUBLICANS FIRE THEIR 'OPENING GUN'

The republican committee will commence what they promise to be one of the most strenuous campaigns in the history of the city, this evening. The meetings tonight will be at the Centennial hall and the Central hall on the North Side. Chairman A. E. Bleckman, Otto Bossard and District Attorney James Thompson will speak. The candidates will probably be present and briefly address the gatherings.

Up to the present time the republicans have not selected a list of the halls for the next week but it is understood that they will decide by Monday.

Nervous Collapse

"I have traveled for thirty years continually. I lost a great deal of sleep, which together with constant worry left me in such a nervous state that finally, after having two collapses of nervous prostration, I was obliged to give up traveling altogether. I doctored continually but with no relief. Dr. Miles' Nervine came to my rescue—I cannot describe the suffering which this Nervine saved me. Whenever I am particularly nervous a few doses relieve me."

A. G. C. LIBBY, Wells, Me.

There are many nervous wrecks. There is nervous prostration of the stomach, of the bowels, and other organs. The brain, the kidneys, the liver, the nerve centers are all exhausted. There is but one thing to do—build up the nervous system by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Its strengthening influence upon the nervous system restores normal action to the organs, and when they all work in harmony, health is assured. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

KETCHEL IS VICTOR OVER JACK O'BRIEN

MONTANA LAD SCORES KNOCK-OUT IN THE TENTH

IF HAILED AS JEFF'S EQUAL

Quaker City Fighter is Unable to Take the Punishment That Opponent Could

NEW YORK, March 27.—Stanley Ketchel made his debut into New York's fighting society last night and today the mantle of victory rests on his shoulders. The middleweight champion knocked out "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien in the tenth round of their fight last night—technically the honor because the final bell rang while the Quaker City fighter, the hero of hundreds of battles, was lying prone on his back, oblivious to all his surroundings. It was a fit ending to one of the best and most vicious fights ever seen in this city. It was the master boxer against a fighter and the fighter won.

Today Ketchel is hailed as the greatest living fighter of the age and his friends say that he is as good as Jim Jeffries was in his palmy days. There was a wide difference between the style of the two men. O'Brien was the boxer; he would jab and jump away; he would jab again and then clinch, but the Montana lad would not be denied. O'Brien's punches left their mark, but still the champion came back in his awkward style and he landed on O'Brien time and again.

But to O'Brien's credit it must be said that he fought throughout the ten rounds. There was none of the stalling so characteristic of him. Several times he stood toe and toe and exchanged punches with the hard hitting champion and that his punches had some power behind them was manifest by the claret that was streaming from Ketchel's face. But the latter was a bulldog for punishment.

Today O'Brien, while not taking any credit from his opponent, is looking after another match. The Quaker City fighter said that he needed a fight or two to get himself on edge and believes that he can turn the trick. But it is the loser's whine. Ketchel today said that O'Brien was the fastest man he ever met but he was sure that he was his master at all times.

The Little Glow of Doom was seen in the red face, hands and body of the little son of H. M. Adams, of Henrietta, Pa. HIGH SCHOOL MEETS "Y" SECOND TIME

This evening in the high school gymnasium, the second of a series of games will be played between the Y. M. C. A. and high school basketball teams. Both squads have been practicing exceedingly hard during the week and the captains report that their teams are in perfect trim for the contest this evening. Although the Y. M. C. A. boys were defeated in the last game, they intend to work over a defeat on the high five which will make a third contest necessary to determine the city championship. However, the L. C. H. S. team is confident of victory as they are accustomed to the floor and baskets in the high school "gym" and if able to win on a strange floor they are sure of victory in a hall where they have practiced the entire season.

AMATEUR RUNNERS COMPETE TODAY

NEW YORK, March 27.—Starting this afternoon from Getty Square, Yonkers, the best amateur runners in the east will be sent on a Marathon race, the last 19 miles of which will be finished at the New York American league's club grounds. Of the runners, Robert A. Fowler, the Boston athlete, is favorite. While the Marathon runners are going over the roads for the first seven miles of the journey a number of athletic contests will be run off at the park.

GOTCH IS ROUGH WITH SON OF ITALY

OMAHA, Neb., March 27.—Frank Gotch, world's champion wrestler, last night defeated John Perrelli, introduced as the champion of Italy, in a one sided match. Gotch won both falls in twelve and nine minutes respectively. It was a rough and tumble affair, in which both men indulged in questionable tactics. After the last fall, Perrelli jumped to the center of the ring and attempted to strike Gotch with his fist but the latter side stepped out of range.

MARATHON RECORD LOWERED BY HATCH

CHICAGO MAN MAKES GREAT TIME OF 2:44:15

ALEXANDER THIBEAU SECOND

Exleben of St. Louis Is Third, and After a Game Finish Was Taken From Track Exhausted

CHICAGO, March 27.—Sidney Hatch of the Illinois Athletic club is today holder of a new world's indoor Marathon record, 2:44:15, after winning the "Marathon of All Nations" here last night. Alexander Thibau finished second, giving Hatch a hot race all the way and finishing but a half lap behind.

Exleben, the St. Louis runner, who finished third, was game to the finish. He was completely exhausted when he crossed the tape on his last lap and had to be carried off the track. Forshaw, also from the Mount City, sprang in the lead at the start and set a terrific pace for his opponents. The Missourian kept the lead until the thirteenth mile, when Hatch forged to the front, but Forshaw soon gained the lead again and held it until the seventeenth mile, when Hatch took it again and kept the lead to the finish.

Thibau finished second, covering the distance in 2:44:22:35; Exleben, third, time 2:49:59.

GOTCH MAY MEET HACK AGAIN, What?

CHICAGO, March 27.—It was announced today that if Frank Gotch, wrestling champion of the world, defeats Yusuff Mahmoud on April 14, he will have another chance at George Hackenschmidt, "the Russian lion." A Melbourne syndicate will offer a purse of $25,000 for a contest in Australia between the two famous wrestlers.

Mr. Sanderson, of the Sanderson-Vincent company, is here to arrange the match. Hackenschmidt has signified his willingness to make another try with Gotch and the Iowa's word is all that is needed.

WESTON ARRIVES AT BUFFALO TODAY

MUFFALO, N. Y., March 27.—Edward Payson Weston, the pedestrian, reached the Iroquois hotel here at 1 o'clock this morning, after an 18 hour struggle with about 49 miles of what he says is the toughest roads he has yet encountered since his start. At six o'clock this morning he again took up the tramp, the route being through East Aurora and Olean.

A drizzling rain was falling at the time, which later turned to snow. Weston has covered 466 miles of his 4,300 mile journey.

TRIPPED—LOSES FIGHT AS A RESULT

DAYTON, Ohio, March 27.—"If I only hadn't tripped," said Tommy Kilbane, the Cleveland lightweight, speaking of his drawn bout last night with "Kid" White of Chicago. The boys fought ten slashing rounds, but what Kilbane describes as his accident in the fifth when the Chicagoan floored him, brought an even break.

JIMMY CALLAHAN NO LONGER OUTLAW

CHICAGO, March 27.—Jimmy Callahan, former manager of the Chicago White Sox, is no longer an "outlaw." He announced today that he had sent a check to President Herrmann of the National baseball commission, covering his fine and that he had been reinstated after being under the ban for three years.

FRIENDS OF CORBETT WANT A MATCH

CHICAGO, March 27.—The western friends of James J. Corbett are rushing to his support. World's champion Jack Johnson is in receipt of a telegram from a firm of western promoters urging him not to sign up with James J. Jeffries until he had boxed with "Gentleman Jim." They offer a purse for this match.

BABy'S PITIFUL CASE OF ECZEMA

Summer Rash Became a Dreadful Itching Humor—Big Blisters Formed and Skin Grew as Hard and Rough as Bark—Scratched and Tore Flesh till Blood Ran.

ALMOST MAGIC CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"Our son, two years old, was very much afflicted with a breaking out of what looked to be a summer rash. I applied the usual remedies, such as washing with soda water and powdering with boric acid. Finally, after he suffered with the trouble several weeks I took him to the doctor. He said it was merely a rash that was quite prevalent, and that I was giving the right treatment and that I should just continue it and the baby would soon be all right. But instead of getting better it was getting worse. The rash ran together and made large blisters. The little fellow didn't want to do anything but scratch and we had to wrap his hands up to keep him from it as he would tear the flesh open till the blood would run. The itching was intense, causing loss of appetite and flesh. "Why didn't he run?" ask men who know pretty jolly well why he didn't.

"Nobody asked him," says the casual observer.

"Yes, they did. I know several democrats who spoke to him about running," replies the party of the first part.

The facts are these:

After Ori Sorensen had got his campaign under full headway it became known that a petition asking Dr. Anderson to become a non-partisan candidate for mayor had been presented to him. That was bad. If he accepted, it would defeat the party. He must be propitiated. So, when it was weeks too late, now and then a democrat would straggle into the mayor's office and ask him "why he didn't run." That was the extent of the "pressure," excepting in the cases of a very few long-headed democrats who saw disaster in the course of events.

CONTRAST THIS WITH FORMER APPEALS TO WENDELL A. AND-ERSON TO ACCEPT THE DEMO-

CRATIC NOMINATION FOR MAY-OR.

A lot of you democrats remember
many excursions to the home of Dr.
Anderson. There was no straggling then. You went in a body and implored him to run. Twice he came to the front. The first time he made your local party and gave it a record. The second time he came and pulled you out of a hole. THIS CITY IS NOT DEMOCRATIC NORMALLY.
IT IS REPUBLICAN. You should not have forgotten that. You should have remembered that DR. ANDERSON MADE IT DEMOCRATIC BY HIS ACHIEVEMENTS AND THAT WHEN YOU DRIVE HIM OUT OF YOUR PARTY YOU INVE A RET-URN TO NORMAL CONDITIONS
AND A RESUMPTION OF THE RE-PUBLICAN MAJORITY. Should Dr.
Anderson finally decline to become a non-partisan candidate, the probability is that Mr. Sorensen will be elected, but look to the near future
for political breakers, there is trouble ahead.

If anyone still insists that Dr. Anderson was not repudiated by the democrats, as an organization, this yearly we invite their attention to the following.

Personal Endorsement of Rosbert
in Democratic Platform

"We heartily endorse the administration of Mayor Rosbert, and assert that he has fulfilled every pledge; and carried out every promise made to our people."

Personal Endorsement of Torrance
in Democratic Platform.

"Resolved, That we heartily endorse these successive democratic administrations, especially that of Mayor William Torrance, which has not only maintained the record of the past, but has inaugurated many additional measures for the welfare of the people."

Personal Endorsement of Anderson in Present Democratic Platform.

After assuming the gory for what the man had done, courtesy would seem to suggest that a passing mention of his name might have been hazarded. However, comment is as unnecessary as it is painful. Let it pass.

THINK THE PUBLIC FOOLS?

The game that is being played at Madison by those members of the legislature who have been scheming and maneuvering to obstruct the investigation of the Stephenson senatorial primary campaign and are now trying to prevent the prosecution of the inquiry shows a very low estimate of the intelligence of the people of Wisconsin. Not a few members of the legislature appear to labor under the impression that their constituents are dolt. They seem to be of the opinion, moreover,
that their constituents are utterly indifferent to the cause of decent politics, and that they, the law-makers, may resort to any kind of trick-ery and boldly defy what an enlightened public sentiment should be-
and is.

Nothing could be more truthful
nor more timely than the statement of a senate member of the investigating committee that the assembly committees whose votes elected Stephenson while they were investigating him on charges of the lavish
and corrupt use of money should resign from the committee. The insistence with which these men cast their votes for Stephenson all through the investigation showed that they were not in a position to be judges of his case—that they

my back gave out and from morning
until night I suffered from a dull

MRS. ROSA BOYER.

Mrs. Rosa Boyer, 1421 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill., writes: "If any one has reason to praise Peruna it is surely myself.

"Last spring I became so run down from the serious effects of a lingering cold, that several complications united in pulling me down. I could neither eat nor sleep well, and lost flesh and spirit.

"I finally tried Peruna and it did wonders for me. In two weeks I was like another person, and in a month I felt better than I ever had before.

"I thank Peruna for new life and strength. I send you two pictures, so you can see what Peruna has done for me."

Better Than For Years.

Mrs. Mary F. Jones, Burning Springs, Ky., writes:

"I wish to speak a word in praise of your highly valued Peruna, as I have been blessed with the golden opportunity of giving it a fair and impartial test, and can say that I have had better health, far better, since I have been using it than for quite a number of years before.

"One of my neighbors had stomach trouble. I recommended Peruna to her,
and now she is well and healthy, after having been pronounced hopeless by several physicians."

Man-a-lin an Ideal Laxative.

were mere partisans. Their course in the inquiry itself has been far from conducive to a thorough and impartial development of the facts.

The failure of these men to act
upon the fact that Isaac Stephenson is the chief defendant in the case is surprising indeed. He was the choice of the primary and under ordinary conditions he would have been clearly entitled to the senatorship.
But the charges which are being investigated are that the wrongful use of money determined the result of the primary in his favor and that therefore his claim to the senatorship, based as it was upon the primary vote, was void. Bear in mind
the fact that he was elected senator
by the legislature while these charges were being investigated, while evidence tending to support these charges was being given under oath,
and bear in mind also the fact that his election was brought about by five out of his eight judges voting for him just as the inquiry was reaching the climax. Then ask yourself what kind of opinion these men have of the people's intelligence and sense of decency.

Of course the investigation of the Stephenson campaign should go on.
Those members of the senate who insist upon parting company with the assembly, whose representatives on the present investigating committee were appointed by a man who received a considerable sum of Stephenson money, are right. They are right in insisting upon a searching and independent investigation by the senate
alone and the people are behind them.

A great deal of testimony that is a shock to the moral sense of the commonwealth has already been given in connection with the inquiry,
and yet it may be that thus far only the surface has been scratched. It is necessary to ascertain the nature of the subsoil.—Milwaukee Journal.

Had the Trades and Labor council had time to consider, it is probable that they would have been too courteous to condemn a man without giving him a chance to defend himself.

Every time those assemblymen
"have fun" with Tom Morris, they experience the sensation of having wrestled with a porcupine.

IMPORTANT COURT DECISIONS

EFFECT OF HEPBURN ACT ON PENALTIES ACCRUING UNDER ELKINS ACT. In Great Northern
Ry. Co. vs. United States, 155 Federal Reporter, 945, in the circuit court of appeals, an indictment was returned against a railroad company for an offense committed at the time the Elkins act was in force. The Hepburn act was in force when the indictment was returned. It was claimed that the latter act repealed section 1 of the former, in which the accusation was based. The contention was not sustained. It was also held that recovery of penalties incurred was not affected by the Hepburn act, though no action therefor was pending at the time of its enactment.

SPOTLIGHTS

THOMAS SHEA FRIDAY.

Three dramas of the very strongest type will be the offering at the La Crosse theater Friday and Saturday, April 2 and 3, matinee included,
when that distinguished actor, Thos.
E. Shea, will be heard in the "Counsel for the Defense," "The Bells" and "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." The former play being a new American modern drama from the pen of Henry Irving Dodge, celebrated novelist and writer for current magazines. It is said that Mr. Dodge has constructed a play of unusual strength with stirring incidents which cover the present day occurrences in our great cities, and which deals with political element, circumstantial evidence and womanly devotion. The central figure of which is a lawyer, hired to defend the prisoner, of a crime that he himself committed. A very strong scene is that in which the wife and the mistress of the prisoner meet in the lawyer's office and both tell their story without each knowing the identity of the other. The "Counsel for the Defense" opens Mr. Shea's engagement at the La Crosse theater on Friday night, while on Saturday
matinee he will present that weird drama "The Bells," which is the play from the pen of a French author and the play that made Sir Henry Irving famous.

On Saturday night the vivid drama "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" will be presented and in this particular play it is said that Mr. Shea stands alone as to his portrayal of the same
from an artistic standpoint of view.
While Mr. Shea is new in this territory, he is an actor of much artistic ability having played in the east,
mostly in the New England states,
for the past twenty years up until
a few years ago, when he came under the management of that reputable firm, Geo. M. Cohan and Samuel H. Harris. His performances in the eastern metropolis have met with praiseworthy criticisms and he is considered to be one of the deepest thinking students of the dramatic stage today. Mr. Shea & Company come direct from the Great Northern theater of Chicago enroute to St.
Paul and his engagement in La Crosse is for two days only, matinee included, Friday and Saturday of next week.

Oh, I wish the boys could hit 'em
As they do in training camp!
I have watched them through the

I have loudly shouted "slide"
To a player, stealing second.
And I fretted when he "died."
I have seen them nabbed as nicely
As a copper nabs a tramp.
And I've wished that they'd run

As they do in training camp.

The man turned round the slide of the lantern and a shaft of yellow light streamed out into the darkness. It fell on Tankerlane's face and a small, circular patch of wet bushes and sparkling raindrops. Tan-kerlane took the lantern from the man's hand and examined the prisoner.

The fellow was a thin, undersized specimen of a man, and he presented a miserable appearance as he stood shivering in his ragged and soaking clothes. His face was pale and ugly, and covered with a three weeks' growth of dirty-yellow hair. His small, bloodshot eyes blinked nervously in the light. His whole aspect was that of a man caught in the act of committing a felony. Tankerlane noticed a piece of thin wire sticking out from one of the torn pockets.

"A snare, eh?" he said. "Well,
it doesn't matter. I've a horse here just behind me. The devil won't move—frightened of something. I'll give you half a sovereign if you'll stand by him till I send a groom up from the Court."

The man did not answer, but his teeth chattered as he looked nervously behind Tankerlane into the darkness.

"Well, you scoundrel?" said Tan-kerlane, giving him a shake to quicken his powers of speech.

"Mike it a quid, guv'nor," the man whined.

"Be hanged to you," replied Tan-kerlane. "You may think yourself lucky I'm not giving you over to the police."

"The 'orse stopped, did 'e?" said
the man. "Oh, the 'orse stopped.
The blessed hanimal, 'e seed mor'n
we 'uman beings: 'e stopped, by the rile, the broken rile. Oh, 'e stopped, did 'e, and you ask me to stay there for 'arf a thick 'un, there, where the bloomin' 'orse seed 'im."

"What are you drivelling about,
you idiot?" said Tankerlane sternly.
"If you don't go and stand by that horse, I'll take you down to the police station."

The man cringed and covered before Tankerlane's angry voice.
"It's worth a quid, guv'nor," he repeated with chattering teeth: "if you knew what I know about that 'ere bloomin' rile, you'd mike it a quid."

"Don't be a fool," replied Tan-kerlane firmly. But his words believed his feelings. Fear came to him out of the darkness and laid her cold hands upon his heart. Perhaps the man's terror was infectious. Perhaps William Tankerlane was afraid of something more tangible than the ghost of a dead man.

"And what do you know about the rile," he continued, "that I do not know, that everyone does not know?
Ben Holland, half drunk, fell against it last night, and it broke away with his weight. We all know that. But only a miserable, whining hound
like yourself would be afraid to wait half an hour by the place where a man met with an accident."

"An accident, guv'nor," said the trembling wretch with a sickly grin.
"What'd yer say, if it were no bloomin' accident, after all?"

A look of fear came into Tan-kerlane's dark eyes, but his face was in the shadow, and the poacher saw nothing.

"I should say," replied Tankerlane, "that you had probably been drinking. But you had better explain yourself, and be quick about it—unless you want to spend the night in the village lock-up."

"Look 'ere," said the man, "yer
a big man, and mebbe I'm a mean little cur, but my motto is, 'Allus

mike friends with the little 'uns.'
They can bite, guv'nor."

"You'll find the big ones can kick,
if you don't get to the point."

"The point is," said the man, "that I knows yer, and I knows yer 'ate a gentleman called Mr. Shil like pizen. And I knows yer'd give me a trifle if I could make things unpleasant for that same Mr. Shil.
That's what I knows, but what I wants to know is 'ow much."

CONGREGATIONALISTS MEET ON THURSDAY

The all day missionary campaign at the Congregational church on Thursday was one of much interest. Morning, afternoon and evening sessions were held and many of the neighboring churches and district sent pastors and delegates as guests to the La Crosse church. The speakers were men closely in touch with foreign and home missionary work.

Dr. Hitchcock, secretary of the foreign board, who visited many foreign fields in 1907, gave most interesting addresses and the audience was only sorry that his time was limited. Dr.

Cary of Japan thrilled his hearers with vivid pictures of the work of Japanese Christians and Dr. Moore represented the work in the south most acceptably. But the ladies of the audience were anxiously waiting for Miss Woodberry of New York, who was known to some. Miss Woodberry has been for some years in touch with the immigrant problems at Ellis Island and her talks are illustrated by stories of the work there. The committee of the Ladies' Missionary union of this city are hoping to secure her as their speaker at the annual meeting this spring.

At 6:30 dinner was served in the parlors to visitors and men of the church, and was followed by more stirring addresses. Many words of commendation were heard for both dinner and speeches.

TO MEET ROOSEVELT.

LONDON, March 27.—The Count of Turin, brother of the Duke d'Abuzzi, has sent word by way of Mombasa, from the interior of Africa, where he is now on a hunting trip, that he will meet ex-President Roosevelt in the African jungle and render whatever aid he can.

The count adds that big game is unusually plentiful in the region that Roosevelt will traverse.

The natives are greatly excited over Roosevelt's visit, the count says. The various African rulers have pictured to their people the greatness of the former president, and there is the keenest anticipation to see him and do him homage.

CANAL SLIDE INCONSEQUENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—Although no direct information has been received at the canal commission offices concerning the recent slide in the vicinity of Gatun, no apprehension is felt over the construction of the canal. Col. Goethals said that the slide occurred at a point a mile and a half distant from the dam and had nothing to do with the work there. The railroad is being raised from a six foot to a 95 foot level and the fill where the slide occurred, lies over a swamp. The condition is likely to occur in any similar constructive work.

Surrounding the cake were little fancy lunch baskets of pink and white, which were given to each guest. Charcoal Lozenges A Natural Breath Perfume

Charcoal Assists in Gaining and Retaining a Sweet Breath.

Breath perfumes should never be resorted to. They seldom conceal the odor and never remove the cause, and are very suggestive.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges sweeten the breath by removing the cause—a disordered condition of the stomach, and by this means imparts to the breath the natural, healthful odor, void of all unnatural or suggestive condition. Charcoal fills a four-fold mission. First, it purifies the breath by restoring it to the natural odor nature intended it to have. Second, charcoal is an absorbent, absorbing 100 per cent per volume of gas, by this means relieving flatulence and gases of the stomach and bowels. Third, charcoal aids digestion and by this means regulates the action of the bowels, relieving flux, diarrhoea, piles, constipation, etc. Fourth, charcoal oxidizes the blood, thus preventing pimples and other eruptions that arise from indigestion and impurities of the blood.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are a household necessity and should be in every home, containing only young willow wood, charcoal and honey. They are perfectly harmless and any quantity may be taken without ill effects. Old and young alike can take Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges with the same beneficial results.

The next time that you have sour stomach, indigestion, bad breath, heart burn, gastritis, bad taste in the mouth, belching or belching up of food, just step in the nearest drug store and get a box of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges and try them; the results will be gratifying and almost instantaneous, the stomach will soon feel better and the disagreeable odor disappear in a very short time.

If you prize a sweet breath and healthy stomach, you should occasionally use Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. A lozenger now and then will suffice to sweeten the breath and keep the stomach in a healthy condition; try them; for sale everywhere, or a sample will be mailed free upon request. Address the F. A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

PROF. FLYNN TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

HEALTH SPECIALISTS COMING HERE ON MONDAY

WILL MEET THE MINISTERS

Man Who Has All Davenport Trying to Live as Nature Intended May Open Campaign Here

Prof. W. Earl Flynn, the health evangelist who has set many Iowa cities especially Davenport — to talking and living his way, will be in La Crosse Monday morning, and will appear before the meeting of the Pastors' union to lay his plans before the ministers. Other prominent people will also be asked to attend.

W. EARL FLYNN.
Health Cultivist Who Comes Here for a Conference Monday.

tend the conference with Mr. Flynn, and it is expected that arrangements will be completed at that time for the specialist to conduct a health campaign in La Crosse.

Prof. Flynn's system is not the dishing of cures, or the sale of anything to carry out the work. He merely shows people how nature intended they should live to gain long life, perfect health and ideal happiness. He claims everyone can be happy if they live right; he also declares it is not difficult to live as nature intended, but decidedly pleasant, once one is started on the right road.

Much interest is being manifested here in Mr. Flynn's proposed campaign and should he arrange to come here it is certain he will have a large audience when he shall outline his views and plans.

PRINCE GEORGE WITHDRAWS LETTER

VIENNA, March 27.—The popularity of Crown Prince George among the jingoes of Serbia is responsible for his withdrawal of his letter of renunciation of the succession to the Serbian throne, in the opinion of Austrian diplomats today. King Peter would gladly have accepted the resignation, they say, and named his son Alexander as the heir, had he dared to invite the enemy of the war party, and the younger element of the Serbian people who are loyal to the crown prince.

No official statement regarding George's withdrawal of his letter has yet been made.

LIVERPOOL, March 27.—J. F. Appleby's Velvet, at odds of 5 to 1, won the race for the Earl of Sefton's plate handicap today. Despoir, owned by B. Gottschalk, was second and Damage, J. B. SHAKE IT WELL IN A BOTTLE

There are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity; often reaching the heart, when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc., are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

A simple test of the urine is to void a small quantity in a bottle or glass and let it stand over night; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and the sufferer can mix it at home: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime.

Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

OLD RIVERMAN DIES IN DUBUQUE

Men in the city who have been interested in river work will be sorry to learn of the death of Capt. Stephen I. Dolson of Dubuque. The end came at the home of his brother in Dubuque at 10:35 Thursday evening.

Mr. Dolson was 64 years of age and had been connected prominently with Mississippi river traffic since the early 60's. He had at various times been with the Minneapolis Packet company and until two years prior to his death with the Diamond J line running between St. Paul and St. Louis.

TO VOTE ON PAYNE TARIFF BILL APRIL 10

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—According to the present plans of the ways and means committee and the leaders of the house a vote will be taken on the Payne tariff bill on April 10 or the two days immediately succeeding after votes have first been taken on the schedules that are arousing the most strenuous opposition.

Most of the members want a vote on some of the schedules, notably wool, lumber, hides and manufactured leather; crude petroleum, coal and iron ore, and manufactures thereof.

THIS IS TRULY REAL RELIGION

CHICAGO, March 27.—Spurning the offer of Rev. E. B. Crawford to withdraw the charges of immorality he filed against her, Mrs. Mary A. Lavender, a prominent member of the Woodlawn Park M. E. church, has demanded trial and it will begin this afternoon. A board of nine laymen will hear the evidence.

Mrs. Lavender's counsel characterizes as "fresh insult and libel" the formal withdrawal by Dr. Crawford of his charges and he announces that the jury must return an uncompromising verdict "or we will wreck the church."

TO REORGANIZE THE FISH TRUST

CHICAGO, March 27.—A complete reorganization of A. Booth & Co. with W. Vernon Booth and all old stockholders excluded and with Patrick A. Valentine of Armour & Co. as the controlling factor, is expected to result from a meeting of the banker creditors of the concern which began today.

The proposed reorganization will be on a basis of about $6,000,000 capital stock. Chicago banks hold $5,000,000 of the paper of Booth & Co. and it is in an effort to realize on this that the reorganization movement was started.

"My mother is dead. She died when I was born. My father died three years ago. He is buried near Chicago. I will not say just where. "Neither will I tell my parents' names. At this point the interviewer noticed a scowl above her left eye. She asked how she got it. "I was injured in an automobile accident in Florida two years ago," she said. "I will not say just where I was injured. If I did, it would draw well known people of the best society into publicity.

"I supposed Billy was brought to me by my husband for the same reason that Billy supposed he came to me. I was led to believe that there was smallpox at Youngstown and that Bill had been exposed and that his father wanted to keep him in some safe place until the smallpox scare had passed.

Didn't "Make Up"

"The report that I put make-up on my face in imitation of smallpox marks is false. Neither did I dress in a nurse's cap. I wore a blue gingham dust cap and dressed about the house like any other woman does when she is doing her work.

"The report concerning the box of drugged candy is also false. We had at the Granger a package of colloid. One of the ingredients of colloid, I am told, is ether. We lost the stopper to the package of colloid so we put it in the candy box in order to keep the odor of the ether from filling the room at the Granger.

The only report concerning my past so far is the report that Mr. Boyle and I were arrested in St. Louis. We were arrested there in connection with a crap game. We were held only a short time and were then discharged.

"I am not going to tell anything further than I have told."

LESS MEAT

Advice of Family Physician.

Formerly people thought meat necessary for strength and muscular vigor.

The men who worked hard was supposed to require meat two or three times a day. Science has found out differently.

It is now a common thing for the family physician to order less meat, as in the following letter from a N. Y. man.

"I had suffered for years with dyspepsia and nervousness. My physician advised me to eat less meat and greasy foods generally. I tried several things to take the place of my usual breakfast of chops, fried potatoes, etc., but got no relief until I tried Grape-Nuts food.

"After using Grape-Nuts for the cereal part of my meals for two years, I am now a well man. Grape-Nuts benefited my health far more than the $500.00 worth of medicine I had taken before.

"My wife and children are healthier than they have been for years, and we are a very happy family, largely due to Grape-Nuts.

"We have been so much benefited by Grape-Nuts that it would be ungrateful not to acknowledge it.

NICK LONGWORTH TALKS ON TARIFF

TELLS IN SPEECH WHY REVENUE SHOULD INCREASE

DENIES REVISION UPWARD

Fifteen Schedules Lowered for Every One Advanced—Says Rivers Need Improvement

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—"The Payne bill has reduced five rates of duty for every one that it has increased, and fifteen for every one it has increased except for revenue purposes alone."

This was the answer of Representative Longworth (R., Ohio) in the house today to the minority charges of revision upward.

Longworth presented the Payne bill as the practical fulfillment of the republican pledge during the campaign—a literal compliance with the platform—the speeches and message of Mr. Taft and the doctrine of republicanism. He denounced the wall which has come from the minority side that they had no opportunity to help frame the bill as absurd, and taunted them for not preparing a bill of their own.

"They," he said, referring to the democrats, "say in their report that the only proper and legitimate function of a tariff law is to raise revenue."

"We say it is at least equally its function to encourage industries, and protect labor."

He declared his belief that the expenditures of the public improvements and for the executive departments would increase.

"The bill," he said, in summing up, "protects every American industry—north, south, east and west. It guarantees to every man who wants to work steady employment at steady wages, and wages immensely higher than those paid in any other country under the sun. It is a revision downward. It provides for true reciprocity as it was understood by Blaine and McKinley. It is an enlightened and progressive republican tariff measure, and as such should receive the vote of every republican and of every democrat who believes in the principle of protection to American industries and labor."

DECLARED SANE; RETURNS TO KILL

TRAVERSE CITY, Mich., March 27.—Discharged from the asylum for the insane here as cured several weeks ago, only to return within a few days asking a refuge until the winter is over, Alexander Ferguson is locked up today a raving maniac, following his crafty killing late yesterday of Isaac Fuller, a fellow inmate.

Ferguson and Fuller had been companions for many months in the asylum and yesterday, with a dozen other trustees were sent to trim trees in the yard. Ferguson chopped a heavy limb from a tree, trimmed it to the proportions of a formidable club and while Fuller's back was turned, struck him down. He struck another heavy blow before the attendant could disarm him.

"He led about me," he muttered. "I had to kill him. I'm glad I did it." So well aimed were the blows about Fuller, who also was a voluntary patient, was instantly killed.

HEROISM NOT AN UNNECESSARY RISK

BUTTE, Mont., March 27.—"To risk one's own life, or even to lose it, in the attempt to save the life of another, is not carelessness nor even foolhardiness nor assuming unnecessary risk, but the plain duty of every man," says District Judge J. J. Lynch in setting aside the defense of the Casualty Company of America, which resisted payment of insurance of $1,500 on the life of Battista Pinnazza on the ground that Pinnazza took unnecessary risk in entering a mine slope filled with gas to save a companion.

Not Sisters

Now and again you see two women passing down the street who look like sisters. You are astonished to learn that they are mother and daughter, and you realize that a woman at forty or forty-five ought to be at her finest and fairest. Why isn't it so? The general health of woman is so intimately associated with the local health of the essentially feminine organs that there can be no red cheeks and round form where there is female weakness.

Women who have suffered from this trouble have found prompt relief and cure in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives vigor and vitality to the organs of womanhood. It clears the complexion, brightens the eyes and reddens the cheeks.

No alcohol, or habit-forming drugs is contained in "Favorite Prescription." Any sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. Every letter is held as sacredly confidential, and answered in a plain envelope. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N.Y.

LA CROSSE WORSTS SPARTA DEBATERS

RIVALS PUT UP STRONG DEFENSE BUT LOSE DECISION

COUNCIL SYSTEM IS BEST

La Crosse Boys Swap the Visitors in Unanswerable Arguments for that System

After trying to defeat Sparta in the annual debate for the past two years, the efforts of the High School debating team were crowned with a success last night, when they received a verdict of two to one in favor of the negative, which was argued by La Crosse.

The question debated was "Resolved, that in American cities a commission form of government, based on the Des Moines plan, is preferable to the present government by a mayor and common council." The judges for the evening were Professors F. C. Sharp, F. L. Lyman and Wm. Leiserson of the university of Wisconsin.

The La Crosse debaters proved in their arguments that the present system was the only one now known that could give entire satisfaction under the greatest number of conditions. They showed that where the commission system was a success it was the men in the commission who were responsible for it and that these men would produce a good administration under any form of government. They went on and gave all the various arguments in favor of a common council and a mayor and the Sparta team was at a loss how to answer the overwhelming evidence which the high school team presented. The Sparta aggregation simply could not produce the arguments while the local team completely swamped the judges with information favoring a common council.

When Rev. J. S. Lowe, chairman for the evening, announced the decision of the judges, the loudest demonstration ever heard in the high school auditorium broke loose, the debaters being cheered time and again.

Paul Esch, Howard Jones and Irving Tuteur argued for the high school, while Andrew Johnson, Percival Hutson and Harry Hersch represented Sparta.

Before the debate a vocal duet by the Misses Weimar and Yost was rendered and very well received by the audience. The high school orchestra also endeavored to relieve the tension of the debate by two musical numbers.

IT CAUSED A LIVELY FIGHT

Hereafter Stocks and Bonds Must be Sold Only at or Above Par and for Stated Purposes

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 27.—The J. N. Johnson bill for the regulation of stock and bond issues by railroads passed the house today.

The Johnson bill is practically the same bill as the famous Rockne bill which the house killed two years ago. The bill caused one of the liveliest fights of the session.

J. J. Hill and others, representing the Great Northern and the Soo roads, fought the bill before the committee. The author of the Johnson bill explained that it provided that stocks and bonds must be sold at or above par, for stated purposes only, after the permission of the railroad commission has been secured.

BOOST SUGAR PRICE.

NEW YORK, March 27.—The American Sugar Refining company posted an advance in rates for all grades of sugar amounting to ten points. The rise, officials say, is due to the steady advance in the price of raw

MAYOR ROSE FOR "SANE REGULATION"

FIRST OF SERIES OF DEBATES
HELD AT MILWAUKEE

WETS AND DRYS "AT IT"

Dr. Dickie Speaks on Generalities,
Citing Pauperism and Misery—Rose Classifies Arguments

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 27.—The wets and drys of America joined issues last night in the first of what will be a series of debates in various parts of the United States, when Mayor David S. Rose, of Milwaukee, he champion of the sane regulation of the saloon, met Dr. Samuel Dickie, president of the national prohibition party, in debate on the question, "Resolved, that Prohibition as Applied to the Manufacture and Sale of Intoxicating Liquor is Right."

An audience of over 6,000 persons heard the speakers, and thousands of others were unable to get tickets. Dr. Dickie spoke mostly on the generalities, charging that the drink evil was responsible for crime, that it wrecked homes, caused pauperism and that prohibition alone could restrain these evils. He charged that the traffic was illegal, that prohibition reduced crime and attending evils to a minimum, and that it would promote manhood and womanhood and make better citizens. He said that the jails were largely filled because of the drink habit and that necessity demanded that prohibition be enforced to protect society. He maintained that prohibition was a success wherever tried.

Mayor Rose treated the subject from three viewpoints—the biblical, the ethical and material. Not one word, he said, was to be found in the bible to show that when the book was inspired, any attempt was made to inject prohibition, although the use of wines was then as common as now. The mayor said census figures showed that prohibition did not decrease crime, insanity, pauperism, divorce or drunkenness. He compared the conditions in Maine, Kansas and the southern states, showed that there was more crime, insanity and pauperism in dry states than in wet states and argued that prohibition had failed utterly to improve conditions, but had only stagnated business. He quoted census figures to show that more people died of measles and whooping cough than alcoholism and that as many died of the latter disease in dry as in wet states. He argued that national prohibition would mean increased taxes, deprive thousands and thousands of work and reduce the price of labor. It would deprive persons of the liberty which the constitution guaranteed.

"Sane regulation," said the mayor, was the solution.

Two more debates are to be held, one of them probably in Chicago.

WHAT OF OVERBECK'S CONFESSION NOW?

MADISON, Wis., March 27.—(Special.)—What has happened to the testimony of Henry Overbeck, former state game warden who appeared before the investigating committee and said in effect that he spent state's money while doing political work?

When the examination had been concluded it was believed to be so damaging that Senator Morris moved that certified copies of the testimony be sent to the governor and the attorney general for action. An inquiry at the office of both of the officials discloses the fact that at neither place has the testimony been received. It is not known whether this is an error of the committee in not sending it, or whether it has been decided to delay the transmission of it until the conclusion of the investigation.

"If no further action is taken, I, as a citizen, will see if this money cannot be given to the state," said a former member of the assembly the other day. "I intend to give the proper officials time to act, but if the matter is not transmitted to them for action, I will see that it is."

FARMERS KICK ON A LONG SINCE DEAD BILL

(From Fred L. Holmes.)
MADISON, Wis., March 27.—(Special.)—Is the joke on the farmers? It appears so. Protests are coming in by the yard against the passage of bills already introduced which have as their object more stringent laws—disastrous to farmers' financial interests—regarding the tuberculosis test for cows. Farmers throughout the state became aware of the bills when they were first introduced. One of them was by Assemblyman Otto Onstad of Dane county. This bill provided for the compulsory testing of all cattle in Wisconsin, a herculean task. The payment for the cattle found infected and slaughtered was to be about the same as under the present law. Under the present law it is optional with the farm owner whether his cattle shall be tested. When cattle are found to be infected with tuberculosis their value is appraised by a local board and the state pays the farmer a fraction of what they are worth. The state pays 66 per cent of the value of each slaughtered cow but in no case will it accept a valuation of more than $50 a head. Therefore if Farmer Brown has a $150 milch cow tested and it is found to be infected, he gets $33.33 from the state on a valuation of $50. This makes Farmer Brown mad. There are many Farmer Browns and they have risen up in indignation over the bill that makes it compulsory that all cows shall be examined and the infected ones slaughtered.

Now it comes about that all the protesting and petitioning of the legislature is useless and this is where the joke is on the farmer. Here is the truth: The Onstad and other bills of the same purport, were killed early this week. They were recommended for death by the assembly committee on agriculture and the assembly dealt the blow.

Under present plans the committee on agriculture will report a bill of its own making regarding the tuberculosis test by the state sanitary and livestock board. This bill will provide not for optional or compulsory tests but for tests in all cases where cattle are offered for sale or change hands. If Farmer Brown decides to sell his Jersey herd he must have each head examined and tested. If they prove healthy the sale goes through. If they don't, then he must submit to a decree of death for the infected Jerseys and accept the pittance paid by the state for diseased cattle.

DISCUSS CHANGE IN CAPITOL PLANS

(Fred L. Holmes.)

MADISON, Wis., March 27.—(Special.)—The plan to rearrange the architectural design of a new state capitol building by turning over the present assembly chamber for the use of the senate and constructing a larger chamber for the use of the assembly in the new south wing will be discussed before the committee on capitol and grounds next Tuesday. Shortly after the convening of the legislature so pronounced was the criticism against the adequacy of the present assembly chamber that Assemblyman Estabrook of Milwaukee introduced a resolution to turn the present assembly chamber to the senate and to ask the architect of the new capitol to change his plans for a larger chamber in the south wing. It is believed that the hearing will attract a large number of people who are interested in the new building and there are many who believe that the resolution will be reported favorably.

A NEW ST. PATRICK UP FROM THE SOUTH

MADISON, Wis., March 27.—(Special.)—Down in North Carolina they raise a wood that is to rattlesnakes what the "deadly Upas tree" is to the turbaned oriental. This wood possesses an odor. The odor isn't exactly objectionable to human beings; but when a rattlesnake smells this wood, even from a distance, he shakes his rattles just once, moans and turns up his toes in death.

All this on the authority of one J. C. Steele, who writes from Ellerbe, N. C., to Attorney General Gilbert. Mr. Steele wants to enter into a contract with the state of Wisconsin to exterminate the rattlers. He understands, so his letter intimates, that Wisconsin is infected with rattlers, that Wisconsin is in a worse dilemma than Hamelin of old; that the rattlers grouped themselves along the capitol steps and crawled from under the desks of assemblymen, thus hindering the development of the Wisconsin idea.

Attorney General Gilbert has referred the Steele letter to the department of snake extermination.

The more pigeonholes in a man's desk, the harder it is for him to find what he is looking for.

Don't stay up all night because you can't learn it all in one day.

WEALTHY WESTERN MINER MISSING

NEW YORK, March 27.—The police are searching for Wm. McGuire, a wealthy miner from Hollister, Cal., who had been missing since Monday from the home of his niece, Mrs. Bridget Marley, Brooklyn, where he was visiting preparatory to sailing for Ireland. McGuire is 60 odd years old. He made a fortune in gold mining and was on his first trip to his mother country in twenty years. He was last seen on Broadway Monday night. He carried a large sum of money in English currency and two drafts for several thousand dollars each.

"My three year old boy was badly constipated, had a high fever and was in an awful condition. I gave him two doses of Foley's Orino Laxative and the next morning the fever was gone and he was entirely well. Foley's Orino Laxative saved his life." A. Wolkush, Casimer, Wis. O. T. Erhart.

WANT BILLY WHITLA AS VAUDEVILLE STAR

SHARON, Pa., March 27.—A number of threatening letters have been received by James P. Whitla, Billy Whitla's father. These have been turned over to the postal authorities for investigation. Some came from as far west as Salt Lake City and others from points far south and north. One letter contains a threat to blow him up. Several of the letters contain offers from vaudeville managers to place Billy on the stage, but the lad will not appear behind the footlights.

The intense excitement in the case is dying down locally and will probably not be awakened until the trial of the Boyles begin.

SCHOOL CHILDREN VOTE STATE FLOWER

On May 6, the date proclaimed by Gov. Davidson as annual bird and arbor day, the school children of the state of Wisconsin will choose the official state flower. Last year four flowers were chosen in the primaries, the violet, wild rose, trailing arbutus and white water lily, as candidates for the place, and this year the office to which one of them will be chosen is that of official state flower.

It is urged by the state superintendent of schools that all school children vote for one of these four flowers on May 6 and to arouse further interest a pamphlet has been issued containing four essays, each lauding one of the four candidates.

It is suggested that the children have party debates in which the politicians shall extol the virtues and good qualities of the candidates, thus familiarizing themselves with the game of American citizenship as practiced by the voters of Wisconsin.

PRO FESSOR FLYNN TALKS ON DIETING

HEALTH EXPERT SAYS WE SHOULD EAT TO LIVE

OUR STOMACHS ARE ABUSED

Man Who May Start Health Campaign Here Says We Should Eat as Nature Intended

"All eating that ignores the use of eating and is done for the more gratification of palate or appetite violates the divine order of things and carries a penalty," according to Professor W. Earl Flynn with whom The Tribune is negotiating to conduct an educational health campaign in La Crosse. "We should eat primarily for the use that eating serves. This does not mean that we are not to enjoy eating, for enjoyment is one of the essentials to a perfect nutrition. But it means that we must eat right, enjoy the simple foods which nutrition requires.

"Some of the most eminent chemists and physiologists of the day are trying to work out the problem of proper food diets. But it would be ridiculous to tell a man that he must be learned in physiology and chemistry in order to prepare himself to partake of his evening meal properly. Their work is commendable and essential. But our grandfathers knew little of the 'ologies,' yet they maintained strong and healthy bodies.

"Being unversed in the science of diets, let us apply to the problem our common sense and that reason with which we have been endowed. Let us inquire into the first principles and ask what was the natural food of man in his primitive state, and let us also see what food substances do to the normal child.

"Before he discovered fire and its use, man lived on the seeds and fruits of trees, on succulent roots and leaves. This is in accord with what we must know would be the God-Given instinct of primitive man. He would eat such things as would be palatable uncooked. And can we doubt that this kind of food would keep a man in health, even as the birds and beasts remained in health on their particular foods?

"There are salts in these natural foods but in organic form, able to aid in nourishing man and animals. Inorganic salts, mined from the earth, have been proved to be unassimilable by animals, hence table salt is waste, affects matter, to be expelled from the system it enters.

"Sugar is also found in foods placed there by the Creator in proportions suited to the needs of the being for whom they were meant. The factory sugar is not a food, but a proximate food principle divorced from its normal constituents in the natural food.

"But what shall I eat?" is the constant cry of those who are seekers after health. I say unto them, "Cut down on seasoning and unnatural foods, chew the food until thoroughly masticated and you will soon know what to eat a great deal better than anyone else can tell you. The needs of the system will make themselves felt in cravings for precisely the right thing. Eat all foods in their natural state which are palatable in that form. When foods must be cooked, bake or steam them, retaining their natural juices. Eat some kind of uncooked vegetables every day. A dressing of oil may be used and lemon juice.

"I have stated what I am convinced is the ideal diet. Now I will add that it is impracticable to those who must eat at the public table. Everywhere foods are drugged with salts, scorched with pepper and every possible rule of hygiene is violated in their preparation. But knowing what we ought to eat we may approximate it as closely as circumstances permit. And those fortunate mortals living at their own tables have full opportunity to live ideally."

SERMONS ON CHURCH UNITY BY MOLLER

There is an interesting course of sermons now being preached by the rector of Christ Episcopal church on "Christian Unity" that is worthy of some comment and attention by all those who have the interest of the Church of Christ at heart.

The church has been divided by human passions and prejudices, by caste feeling by lack of sympathy, by loss of the true sense of Christian fellowship. The talk about the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man sounds strangely to those who consider the competitions, the differences, the contentions among Christians. In this day of enlightenment it ought to be unnecessary and impossible for bitterness and wrath and clamor of polemics or contentions in regard to religious doctrine to arise.

There are some who still hold that the different bodies of Christians are necessary as men are not made alike and they must have freedom of intellectual life. But the Christians of all denominations are coming to the sense of how great is the delusion of such a plea for sectarianism.

Men may not agree on matters of minor importance but men were made able to agree on truth and righteousness. The one thing most important to agree upon is religion and the great commandment for all to love God and neighbor is a recognition of the possibility and the necessity of being one in agreement concerning the primal truths of religion.

Pharisees or the separatists or sectarians were condemned by Christ and their spirit of sectism held up as absolutely unworthy of the kingdom of God. It was the Pharisee who was

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

The original remedy that "kills the dandruff germ"—An exquisite hair dressing.

THE LADIES OBJECT to a gummy and sticky hair dressing or one that is full of sedentary chemicals intended to dye the hair. The marked preference for a clean and dainty preparation, particularly one that overcomes excessive oiliness and leaves the hair light and fluffy, is reflected in the enormous sale of Newbro's Herpicide. Discriminating ladies become enthusiastic over its refreshing quality and exquisite fragrance.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY must have pretty hair. The features may be quite plain or even homely, yet if the head is crowned with an abundance of beautiful hair, attractiveness will not be lacking. The poet says: "fair tresses man's imperial race ensnare." Herpicide gives the hair a charming distinctiveness that is characteristic of no other hair dressing.

DISEASED HAIR A MISFORTUNE. Unsightly or diseased hair is a misfortune in more ways than one. There is the actual injury to the hair follicles and the consequent loss or thinning of the hair;

this may cause diseases that sometimes follow a removal of thinning of nature's protection to the head. A diseased condition of the hair affects woman's disposition to a marked degree. If the hair is dull, brittle and lifeless, owing to the presence of a microbic growth, the effect is to dampen one's spirits and cause a loss of interest in personal appearance. The use of Newbro's Herpicide overcomes the ravages of the dandruff microbe, after which the natural beauty and abundance of the hair will return as nature intended. Almost marvelous results follow the use of Herpicide. Gentlemen will find Newbro's Herpicide in use at all important barber shops.

responsible for the crucifixion and it is such phariseism of its fruits that today are responsible for the crucifixion of the son of God afresh and putting Him to an open shame.

It was Christ's prayer and Christ's will that the church should be one.

On next Sunday night, Rev. Moller will speak of the four things which are now the main points of difference among Christians: Immersion, Infant Baptism—Predestination and Election and Church Government. The sermon on next Sunday night will deal chiefly with infant baptism and incidentally the preacher will answer the question as to where the Methodists get their ideas of doctrine.

A DUTY WAIVED

Pure, rich blood, firm muscles, rugged strength, steady nerves and a clear brain are essential to the person who wishes to succeed in getting his share of happiness and prosperity.

The nervous system is prepared to meet a certain amount of drain because the blood is forever carrying nourishment to the nerves and building them up, so that the blood really feeds the nerves; but where the drain upon the nerves is unusually great through excesses or over-work, the demand exceeds the supply, there is nervous derangement and the foundation for serious ailments is laid.

While the average citizen exercises shrewdness in guarding against mistakes that will injure his business interests, he too often overestimates the strength of his constitution; works on day after day overtaxing his physical being, refuses to recognize the signs of the approaching break-down and cheerfully waives the duty he owes to his family, friends and self—that of preserving, as nearly as he can, a state of perfect health.

If the man who has drifted into this condition would use the same conservative judgment in his search for rehabilitation that he does things, he would consult an able specialist who has proved what medical science, vast experience in treating such cases, and business integrity combined, can do for those afflicted.

Dr. L. M. Turbin, the specialist from Chicago, who is widely known as the most successful specialist in chronic and nervous diseases has perfected a method of treatment which, if followed carefully, will stop forever the dangerous drains upon the system, banish ill-health and restore lost power and strength to the patient.

Years of faithful service in which the doctor has made regular monthly visits to our city, and the wonderful results achieved by his skillful treatment of serious cases, have earned for him an enviable reputation among our friends and neighbors.

Each and every one is assured the best treatment that science and skill can evolve, and every patient is given the best care and attention, so that any one in need of medical treatment should consult the doctor.

Dr. Turbin gives consultation and examination free to those who call at his office in the Jefferson Hotel in La Crosse, Wednesday, March 31st.

CAPITAL IS WARY

NEW YORK, March 27.—"Business in the manufacturing cities is naturally quiet before uncertainty as to what prices will be when the tariff revision is completed," said B. L. Winchell, president of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad, who is in New York on business. "But there is no hesitation shown by the farmers through the middle west. They are going ahead with absolute confidence."
Winchell said business would increase as soon as the tariff question is settled.

TRAMP PROTECTED; BOY'S BODY WASN'T

PECULIAR FEATURES OF LAWS GOVERNING BURIAL

GOLF CLUB BURIES CADDY

Otherwise Body Might Have Been Sent to Dissection Table While Hobo Is Protected

County charges, who die here friendless and penniless, may be sent to the university for dissection purposes, but the remains of a traveling hobo, who happens to meet death while visiting La Crosse as a transient, must be interred where relatives, who might turn up later can secure the body, if they so desire.
This is one of the peculiar features of the statutes governing the disposition of paupers' remains. County authorities have carefully gone over the statutes and the above is the consensus of legal opinion in the matter.

Thus it happens that a few days ago the body of Jack Leonard, the boy drowned in the Mississippi here, would have been wrested from the arms of his aged father and mutilated on a dissecting table had not sympathetic members of the Country club raised a sum of money sufficient to defray the cost of interment, but the remains of Charles Zattel, the man killed by the cars at Grand Crossing Thursday morning will be interred at the expense of La Crosse county in the potters field at the cemetery, unless friends at Aberdeen, S. D., take charge of the remains.
Zattel is, under the law, a transient pauper. He met his death while riding through La Crosse on a freight train. No money was found on his person, nor is there any clue as to where his home was or where he was bound.

LIFE IN PRISON FOR KIDNAPPING

MADISON, Wis., March 27.—Special.—Moved by the harrowing incidents in the Whittie case the assembly committee on charitable and penal institutions presented a bill to the assembly today increasing the penalty for kidnapping in the state from 15 years to life imprisonment. There is a strong sentiment here favoring its passage.

Some people seem to take even their fun seriously.

OIL INSPECTION IS NO LONGER NEEDED

MADISON, Wis., March 27.—Oil inspectors may become a thing of the past in Wisconsin if the bill which the assembly committee is drafting should become a law.

The bill is a substitute for one introduced by Assemblyman Roethe, wiping out the oil inspector's department. The substitute has two salient features. They are:

1. Abolishing the present oil inspector's office, and placing the inspection of oils under the dairy food commissioner.

2. Making absolute qualifications for kerosene, naphtha and gasoline which may hereafter be sold in Wisconsin.

The state administration is reported to be greatly opposed to the bill. Foley's Kidney Remedy will cure any case of kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. Cures backache and irregularities that if neglected might result in Bright's disease or diabetes. O. T. Erhart.

A Religious Author's Statement.
Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased, and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." O. T. Erhart.

TREATMENT OF DYSPEPSIA

The correct treatment of dyspepsia, and in fact, of the milder forms of indigestion, lies in the use of almost any good neutralizing mixture or elixir. The following prescription has been recommended as displaying prompt results. Get from your druggist 1-2 oz. sodium phosphate and 1 oz. essence of seaweed. Mix this thoroughly in a half-pint bottle with 1-2 teaspoonful of good baking soda, adding pure water to fill the bottle. Take 2 teaspoonfuls before each meal.

It is said that this mixture will relieve the bowels of gas within fifteen minutes, and that it will permanently cure the most aggravated cases within two or three weeks. Anyone is free to use this formula and make up the medicine at home. All the ingredients can be had from any druggist at a cost not exceeding 60 or 65 cents.

the Cannon republicans and 22 democrats, headed by Representative Fitzgerald of New York. The editorial goes on:

"That President Taft, at the beginning of his administration, was persuaded to aid the forces which combined to make Cannon speaker with unlimited power for obstruction under the rules adopted must bring disappointment to the great body of progressive citizens of the country. President Taft knows that Speaker Cannon blocked the legislation which would have promoted the policies of his predecessor. How can he hope to advance with this progressive legislation when he sets up and fortifies in power across the course he must travel one of the strongest enemies of progress?"

BRAY FIRES SHOT AT HIS "UNCLE IKE"

gating committee voted to elect Isaac Stephenson while he was under investigation by yourselves?" Assemblyman Ingram, one of the progressive leaders of the assembly, had just finished testifying that since early in the legislative session he had known of the existence of the Tilton letter to John Aylward, which told of Tilton's having been offered money by Stephenson's people to run for the assembly.

Bray Pads the Record.
To Bray this looked like an opportunity to make a dramatic answer to Senator Morris' oft repeated and embarrassing question. Accordingly Mr. Bray made a long speech charging the senate members of bad faith in not revealing to him the existence of this letter and he charged that by keeping the existence of this letter secret they were responsible in a greater degree than any other members of the legislature for the election of Mr. Stephenson, while the investigation was pending.

Some Shot and Shell.
"Now I am convinced," he said, "that you never were sincere in your opposition to Stephenson and that you never wanted to prevent his election. The best thing that the La Follette faction of the republican party ever did for itself was to unload Isaac Stephenson on the stalwarts."

"Then you repudiate Stephenson?" asked Senator Morris. Later, in answer to a question from Senator Huston, Mr. Bray said that it would have made no difference in the way he voted even if he had known of the existence of the letter.

"Then you are back in the Stephenson camp," said Senator Morris. But Mr. Bray ignored the little thrust.

Assemblyman Ingram had been called to testify in regard to the republican senatorial caucus of two years ago. He said that at a conference held the evening before the caucus, eleven Hatton men said they would vote for Stephenson on second choice. Of the eleven whom he thought had made such a statement he named W. W. Perry, D. J. Morse, E. Schauer, Charles Neitzel and Wesley Irvine. He could not recall the names of the others.

Mr. Ingram said that he voted two years ago for Stephenson and Mr. Hambrecht asked him why he did so. Witness said he wanted to uphold the choice of the caucus. He was asked why he did not abide by the primary as he did by the caucus. Mr. Ingram replied that there were no

ARTHUR FARNUM TELLS OF ARREST

Arthur Farnum, 1131 State street, manager of the Star Knitting works of this city, has returned from Cleveland, where he was at the time of the arrest of the Whitla kidnapers. Mr. Farnum says all Cleveland was laughing at the clumsiness of the detectives sent to arrest Boyle and the woman. They went to the apartment house, where the couple was supposed to be, and mounting the steps to the door of their apartments, knocked. Boyle said his name was something else. Because he did not then have on a moustache, which "Billy" Whitla said his captor wore, the sleuths left to continue their search elsewhere. Meanwhile the woman went out the back door with a market basket while the man slipped out of the front door, and it was more by chance than otherwise that they were later recaptured.
